NOTE

JPRS publications contain information primarily from foreign newspapers, periodicals and books, but also from news agency transmissions and broadcasts. Materials from foreign-language sources are translated; those from English-language sources are transcribed or reprinted, with the original phrasing and other characteristics retained.

Headlines, editorial reports, and material enclosed in brackets [] are supplied by JPRS. Processing indicators such as [Text] or [Excerpt] in the first line of each item, or following the last line of a brief, indicate how the original information was processed. Where no processing indicator is given, the information was summarized or extracted.

Unfamiliar names rendered phonetically or transliterated are enclosed in parentheses. Words or names preceded by a question mark and enclosed in parentheses were not clear in the original but have been supplied as appropriate in context. Other unattributed parenthetical notes within the body of an item originate with the source. Times within items are as given by source.

The contents of this publication in no way represent the policies, views or attitudes of the U.S. Government.

BRIEFS

MILITARY STRENGTH FIGURES--According to a Chinese estimate that was recently received at the French General Staff the permanent strength of the Vietnamese army will be one million men. Thus, Hanoi will have the fourth largest army after the USSR, the USA and China. All adults are subject to active military service between the ages of 17 and 35. At present 200,000 Vietnamese soldiers are occupying Kampuchea and 60,000 are in Laos. [Text] [Paris VALEURS ACTUELLES in French 31 Dec 79 p 13]
